

Quinta das Marias
Oliveira do Conde

Dão DOC „Crudus“ Quinta das Marias White 2019

„Crudus“ is an „Out of the bottle“ wine, the second in a collection of wines that will be released with the mission of transmitting the unparalleled purity of the Dão region. Mainly, it is a wine crafted to give pleasure. But it is also an image that appeals to the vanguard and the ancestors.

Grape variety: 100% Encruzado - emanating from our oldest plot planted in 1991.

Date of harvest: 11th September 2019

Winemaking: The grapes are handpicked and immediately brought to the winery, where they undergo hand selection, destemming for cold skin contact. Pressing and decantation is followed by spontaneous fermentation in Austrian 500 l barriques during 37 days. After fermentation the wine is aged on light lees in the barriques for 21 months, followed by unfiltered bottling. This may lead to developing a natural deposit..

Production: 1207 bottles of 75 cl

Bottling: July of 2021

Alcohol: 13 Vol. %, Total Acidity 6,06 gr/L

Saccharose/Glucose/Fructose : 1,1 g/L, pH: 3,22

Responsible for this wine:

Owner: Peter Viktor Eckert

Assistant Manager: Victor Lopes

Vineyard Manager: José Faria

Winemaking: Luís Lopes